S PRICE ONE CENT.

The X MAS WORLD LAST ED

A WORLD SANDRINGHAM PALACE AND MAKES PHOTOGRAPHS OF THE PRINCE OF WALES'S DINING ROOM.

AND BILLIARD ROOM.

XMAS Reminiscences

MERRIEST XMAS. ROPER OBSERVANCE OF THE DAY THIS YEAR.

BEAUTY WANDORNED. A PAGE OF OF NEW YORK'S REALLY BEAUTIFUL SHOP GIRES

IN CONTRAST TO THE

SOCIETY BEAUTIES ONDEMNED

SARAH GRAND, JEAVENLY

The DIARY OF A Respectable

Love and Life Among Domestic Animals.

A Q OCIETY IDELIGHT. Striking Portrait of Up-to-Date Social bife IN THE Metropolis.

BY THE REAT GEROME. The Distinguished French Painter

Writes of Notable Works, HIS FAILINGS,

A LAROL, CHRISTMAS

By LEWIS MORRIS. The Great English Poet Who It Was Believed Would Succeed

TENNYSON As Poet Laureate of England.

VMAS CHURCHES, THEATRES, MARKETS

YMAS. SOCIETY. MUSIC, SPORTS, LITERATURE.

VMAS

PRESENTS, DINNERS, PASHIONS, SHOPPINO, PLOWERS, GAMES, EVERGREENS,

Seautiful Highrations. A Colored Cover. John C. Sheehan, Police Commissioner, Tue heat table d'hote dinner is served at the st. of New York, in visiting friends in this James Motel, B way & sets st., 0 to 9 f. M.

Since Thanksgiving Day. HORNELLSVILLE, N. T., Dec. 7.-

SHEEHAN VISITING FRIENDS.

city. He arrived after midnight last night from Albany and was here with dicted by the Grand Jury

Has Gone.

IN HORNELLSVILLE TO-DAY

Charged with Refusing to Show

His Bank Books to Lexow

Committee.

HE MAY SPEND A YEAR IN JAIL.

He Is New Visiting Intimate Friends with His Wife at Hernells-

ville, N. Y.

Police Commissioner John C. Sheehan

vas indicted yesterday afternoon by the Grand Jury for refusing to surrender his bank books Oct. 21 last to Mr. Goff. at and laid Sheehan open to indictment for

The indictment was ordered vesterday. but was not filed. It was found upon th

Martine's court to-day it was learned that the indictment which has been ordered against Police Commissioner John

Oyer and Terminer would take up Shee-han's case, and such was the programme arranged at the beginning of the month. Justice Ingraham's dismis-be appointed next month changed the

MR. SHEEHAN'S DREAM.

For some time rumors have been floating around the Criminal Court-House that Sheehan and his brother, the Lieutenant-Governor, were at the bottom

the charges brought against District-At-torney Fellows by the Good Government

Committee of Five, and that the idea was to oust Fellows and put ex-Police

Sheehan and MacLean have arranged to

Jan. 1, 1895. It is said this morning that District-Attorney Fellows had hurried the indict-

News reached this city last night that

Telegraphic inquiry at Hornellsville

nd at Buffalo has failed thus far to locate Mr. Sheehan. He is reported as

The District-Attorney is not in a humisdemeanor.

the demand of the counsel for the Lexow Committee. This refusal was held to be in contempt of the Senate of New York,

NOW SHEEHAN

SLIPS AWAY.

The Police Commissioner InThe Police Commissioner InThe Police Commissioner InThe Police Commissioner InThe Police Commissioner InThis regard to the matter.

In the same friends on Thanksgiving day, accompanied by his wife, who is an old friend of her hostess and has remained here since that time.

Mr. Sheehan returned to accompany her on her departure from this city. They leave for Buffalo in the morning, where Mr. Sheehan will visit his father.

This evening they will accompany their host and hostess to the reception of the City Club, which will be an occasion of more than usual moment in society circles here, the club being comprised of the wealthleat and most exclusive people of the community.

He deelined to see a reporter.

Mr. Sheehan sent word through a mutual friend that he did not care to discuss the question of his reported indictment for contempt, and should have nothing to say in regard to the matter.

BANK DEFALCATION DENIED. President Simmons Says His Teller

Has Not Absconded. President Simmons, of the Fourth National Bank, says there is not a shadow of truth in the report that the paying dicted by the Grand Jury.

teller has absconded with $15,000. He says further that the Bank has uffered no loss, directly or indirectly.

ONE BONDSMAN FOR TAIT.

The Chemical Bank's Ex-Teller Walts for Another Surety. John R. Tait, who, as paying teller o the Chemical Bank, stole $15,000 to lend to his friends, was brought before Comto his friends, was brought before Commissioner Shields to-day and remanded until Wednesday for a hearing.

He was indicted yesterday and arrested at his home, in Mount Kisco. He was brought to the city and locked up in Ludlow Street Jail all night.

His attorney, J. V. Harrison, busied himself all the morning in hunting upball for his client. He succeeded partially shortly after noon, and at 12.30 presented John Bentley, a dealer in printing materials at 18 and 20 Chambers street, this city, residing at 1228 Fulton afreet, Brooklyn, as one of Tait's suretles to Commissioner Shields. He was accepted as one of Tait's bondsman.

men.
Tait was taken back to the Marshal's private office until the other bondsman could be secured. He refused again to say anything about his case, his health or his future intentions, and his attorney was equally positive in refusing to discuss the matter.

HE DEFIED THE CORONER.

minutes of the testimony given by Shee-han before the Lexow Committee on Oct. 21 and upon the testimony furnished to the Grand Jury yesterday by John W.

HE DEFIED THE CORONER.

Price Said an Adjournment Would Cost Him $700,000.

At the inquest to-day in the Coroner's officer as to the death of Miss Holden, who was killed by a cable car at Broadway and Spring street, Nov. 10, the law yer for the road asked for an adjournment until 3 c-lock this afternoon.

"That don't suit me at all," shouted a man from the rear of the room.

"What have you get to do with it," saked Coroner Fitzpatrick.

"What have you get to do with it," saked Coroner Fitzpatrick.

"What have you get to do with it," saked Coroner Fitzpatrick.

"What have you get to do with it," saked Coroner Fitzpatrick.

"What have you get to do with it," saked Coroner Fitzpatrick.

"What have you get to do with it," saked Coroner Fitzpatrick.

"What have you get to do with it," saked Coroner Fitzpatrick.

"What have you get to do with it," saked Coroner Fitzpatrick.

"What have you get to do with it," saked Coroner Fitzpatrick.

"What have you get to do with it," saked Coroner Fitzpatrick.

"What have you get to do with it," saked Coroner Fitzpatrick.

"What have you get to do with it," saked Coroner Fitzpatrick.

"What have you get to do with it," saked Coroner Fitzpatrick.

"What have you get to do with it," saked Coroner Fitzpatrick.

"What have you get to do with it," saked Coroner Fitzpatrick.

"What have you get to do with it," saked Coroner Fitzpatrick.

"What have you get to do with it," saked Coroner Fitzpatrick.

"What have you get to do with it," saked Coroner Fitzpatrick.

"What have you get to do with it," saked Coroner Fitzpatrick.

"What have you get to do with it," saked Coroner Fitzpatrick.

"What have you get to do with it," saked Coroner Fitzpatrick.

"What have you get to do with it," saked Coroner Fitzpatrick.

"What have you get to do with it," saked Coroner Fitzpatrick.

"You are subjected from the bench and if you don't come back."

"Hold on there, said the Coroner, you are subjected from the bench and if you don't come back."

"Hold on there, said the Coroner, you are subjected from t C. Sheehan had not yet been filed. Why the indictment has been held back no one would say who was in a position to know. Until the indictment is filed no bench warrant can be issued, and Shee-Inst night came as a surprise. It was known that he would probably be indicted, but the idea was that the Extraordinary Grand Jury for the Court of sal of the Extraordinary Grand Jury until a Deputy Attorney-General could CHALLENGE DUE TO-NIGHT. America's Cup Committee Refuse to Divulge Its Contents. America's Cup Committee of the New York Yacht Club, met in Commodore James D. Smith's office, at 42 Broad street, this afternoon, to hear Lord Dunraven's challenge read.

After the meeting Commodore Smith was asked to make the challenge public, but he declined to do so on the ground that Lord Dunraven wished his explanatory letter made public at the same time. The letter is coming on the Campania, which ship is due to-night.

WHITEHEAD ARRESTED.

The Notorious Dector Given Up b His Bondsmen. Dr. Newton Whitehead, who is under indictment for criminal malpractice upon Agnes Berthold, was to-day surrendered by his bondsman, Moritz Brockman, of 254 East Sixty-ninth street

Brockman, of 254 East Sixty-ninth street and locked up in the Tombs.

Later he was brought to Judge Cowing's Court, General Sessions Part III., where his alleged accomplices, Kusch and Mrs. Moadens are being tried, and formally sugrendered. Assistant District-Attorney Weeks moved that his ball be raised to $5,000, and Lawyer Willism F. Howe vehemently opposed the motion but without avail.

KILLED BY AN ELEVATOR.

Commissioner MacLean in his place as District-Attorney before the year was out. It is known that "Blue-Eyed Billy" compesing Room Boy of a New Haven Paper Crushed to Death. go into partnership as lawyers after NEW HAVEN, Conn., Dec. 7 .- George Purcell, aged fourteen, of Meriden, one of the composing-room boys of a news-paper, was caught between the elevator and the floor platform this morning. ment of Sheehan for the purpose of frustrating the plans of the brothers. His breast and head were horribly crushed and he died after a few minutes of terrible agony.

His crics brought assistance, but too late to save him. The elevator had to be cut away to remove the body. John C. Sheehan is in Hornellsville and will to-day go to Buffalo to visit rela-

Smith's Suit to Recover His House The suit of William P. Smith, a former em-ployee of the late A. T. Stewart, and a legates probably on a train between Hornells-ville and Buffalo this morning, and so ployee of the size A. T. Stewer, and a legates under his will, to recover title to the house and let at 113 East Thirty-fifth sireet, given him by Mrs. Stewart and transferred by him to his daughter, Mrs. Marguret Thompson, was continued to-day before Judge Dugro, in the superior Court. No new testimony was introduced up to a late bour. cannot be reached. Mrs. Sheehan is said mor to stand upon ceremony, and he will try to get Sheehan into custody as quickly as possible. The spectacle of GRADY BEFORE GRAND JURY.

the Commissioner of Police being brought from Buffalo to this city under arrest would, it is said, be particularly pleasing to the District-Attorney at this time.

Assistant District-Attorney Battle, who prepared the indictment against Sheehan, said this morning that he was not at liberty to talk about the case, as Sheehan has not been arrested. He would not even acknowledge that the indictment had been found.

The Police Justice Adjourns Court in Response to a Summons.

Police Justice Adjourns Court in Response to a Summons.

Assistant District-Attorney at the Tombs abruptly this morning, for the reason, he said, that he had been would not even acknowledge that the indictment had been found.

Want to Tax Cyclers. sion of the Board of Supervisors a resolution to tax each bicyrie rider in the county IS a year, the proceeds to be applied to the construction of good rends, was felered to the Commilton on Legislation.

JAEHNE IS INDICTED.

Painter Allen, His Alleged Dupe, Also Presented.

The Bondsman Surrendered Him in Place of Eurglar Delan.

The Painter Says Me Is the Innocent Victim of a Plot.

It was stated this afternoon upon the best of authority that Charles L. Jachne, the professional bondsman, and surrendered to the District-Attorney's as John Dolan, a burglar, had been in Shortly before noon to-day Allen, ac-companied by Deputy Assistant District-Attorney Battle, the policeman who originally arrested Dolan. Hughes, who was indicted with Dolan, and a pretty young woman, said to be Allen's wife, went before the Grand Jury.

What took place there is, of course, a secret, but after the conference was over the report that indictments had been the report that indictments had been found was circulated.

John Dolan and James Hughes were indicted in February for burgiary. Their bail was fixed at $1,000 each.
Jachne went on their bonds, for which he was paid $2 per cent.
When "The World" exposed Jachne's professional bondsman business, District-Attorney Fellows ordered the rearrest of all persons for whom Jachne was bondsman.
Warrants for Dolan and Hughes were issued Tuesday, and Jachne was ordered to produce the men, Jachne said that Hughes was in Phliadelphia, but that he would have him, with Dolan, in the District-Attorney's office Wednesday.
He had Hughes there, but Dolan was represented by the man who declares he is Allen, and the innocent victim of a diabolical plot.

ne is Alien, and the innocent victim of a diabolical piot.

He told Warden Fallon this, and the latter communicated with Assistant District-Attorney Battle, who is investigating the matter. Meanwhile Dolan is at

"Do you know Jacking the porter." "No: I don't think I'd know him if I saw him."
Detective-Sergt. Phil Reilly, who escorted Hughes to the District-Attorney's office Wednesday, said-this morning that while Hughes was somewhat intoxicated, and Jachne was "heavily loaded." Allen did not at all appear to be under the influence of liquor.

MUST HAVE GOOD PROOF.

Otherwise the Loyal Legion Canno Make Charges Against Andrews.

Commissioner Andrews in connection with the evidence adduced before the Lexow Committee. Neither did he think that any charges would be formulated for some time to come.

That there was a lot of very indignant feeling against Mr. Andrews in the organization, however, Mr. Odell freely admitted.

"Mr. Andrews stands in a very embarrassing position in regard to the Loyal Legion just now." said he. "That charges will be preferred against him sooner or later, I feel sure, but, you see, the constitution of our organization demands that a man making charges against a member must be able to prove them, hence evidence must be procured. We will do nothing hastily."

Commissioner Andrews to-day sent in his quarterly report for April, May and June last. It showed expenditures for the quarter amounting to $40,00.61. Nothing was said in it about any "loans" from Senator Plunkitt.

GOING UP HIGHER.

Testimony Next Week Promises to Be of a Startling Nature.

That the Lexow Committee is preparing to receive testimony of a very important character upon a new line of inquiry is foreshadowed by the an-Inquiry is foreshadowed by the announcement made by Mr. Goff just at the close of yesterday's session.

It was generally expected that the hearings would continue uninterruptedly through the week, but the chief counsel for the Committee in asking for an adjournment until next Tuesday, stated that there were some very important matters in connection with the investigation that would demand his attention during the next two or three days, and he thought it advisable to suspend the examination of witnesses in the interval.

FATHER DUCEY IS SILENT. No One Willing to Talk About th

Clerical Controversy. Rev. Father Ducey was in a quiet mood this morning, and to all inquiries firmly remarked: "I will not talk any more." At the Archhishopal mansion, Hishop Corrigan referred visitors to Rev. Father Zitervey. This divine was at a Father Zitervey. This dryine was a funeral.

Father Lewske declined to converse on the controversy between the Archbishop and Father Ducey. Unless semething developes later in the day, the prospects are that all will be quiet along the clerical controversial lines.

Police Don't Feel Like Dining. It is believed that owing to the Lexow in It is believed that owing to the Lexew investiga-tion, and to the number of captains dead, dia-charged or under suspicion, there will be no police captains' hanquet at Deimonico's this Winter. The heat annual dinner—cle thriventh—was held on fan. 22, 1884, and was a gorgeous allair.

DENSE FOG IN PITTSBURG.

eral Collisions Reported an One Man Fatally Crushed.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 7 .- This city was enveloped in a dense fog up to 10 o'clock this morning, causing a number of small railroad and street car wrecks, and one fatality. Robert Campbell, of Allegheny ttempted to board an electric car and b the dim light missed his footing and fel under the trailer. He died in a few

Make Charges Against Andrews.

Major Thomas B. Odell, Recorder of the New York Commandery of the Loyal Legion, said this morning that he did not know of any specific charges having been made to the Board of Officers of the organization against Street-Cleaning the organization against Street-Cleaning Commissioner Andrews in connection with Commissioner Andrews in connection with while alighting from the car and fractured his skull.

HARRY TURNED UP TO-DAY.

Von Der Horst's Friends Say They

MR. GARVEY ON TRIAL.

The "Aster Tramp" Fed by Mysterious Wealthy Woman.

Club Gossips Say He Was on a Still Hunt for Certain Documents.

His Case Adjourned Over Until Next Monday.

was manifested in the case of John Garvey, the Astor tramp, when his trial was called before Justice Fitzgerald in Part II. of the General Sessions this was manifested in the case of John Chryster and Development of the Color of Starty Von Der Hererit Prieseals Bay They Raww Where B Was to Start When the Color of Starty Von Der Hererit Prieseals Bestone I this flow when the Nava Start When the Color of Start When the Came on to look been missing since the Leasupe metals the Court-House correlation of the Manifest Monday. The Hererit States is the Court-House correlator long helder to correlate the Millionater Divorce Case.

The Manhouse of the Court-House correlator long helder to correlate the Court-House correlator long helder to correlate the Millionater Divorce Case.

The Washington of the Court-House correlator long helder to correlate the Millionater Primary and the Millionater Primary language the Court of the Court-House correlator long helder to correlate the Millionater Primary language the Court-House correlation of the Court-Hous had been released on the payment of $3.

Assistant District-Attorney Macdona, offered no objection to the plea and Justice Fitzgerald said that he would give the case to the jury on the question of former jeopardy.

Justice Fitzgerald read the section of the law which defines disorderly conduct and then said:

"The issue is one of law only. The test is this: If the act charged in the indictment could be tried under the former proceedings, the plea of former jeopardy would be good. It cannot, however, be claimed in this case that the Astor residence was a public place, as defined by the section relating to disorderly conduct. Breaking into a house is not disorderly conduct and cannot be so construed. I therefore direct the jury to find for the people."

The jury did so without leaving their seats.

It was then found that the Assistant

DE LESSEPS

End of the Great French Engineer Came Peacefully To-Day.

PASSES AWAY.

BUILDER OF THE SUEZ CANAL

Ill Since the Collapse of His Great Panama Canal Echeme.

NEVER KNEW OF HIS CONVICTION

He Brought Upon Republic.

PARIS, Dec. 6.-Count Ferdinand de

Count Ferdinand de Lesseps born in Versailles, Nov. 10, 1806. was the son of Jean Baptiste min, Baron de Lesseps.

min, Baron de Lesseps.

At the age of twenty years he was appointed Attache of the French Consulate at Lisbon, and was afterwards engaged in the commercial department of the French Ministry of Foreign Affairs. In 1825, he was made attachee of the Consul-General in Tunis, and in 1831 hecame Consul to Alexandria.

When thirty-five years of age he was made Consul at Rotterdam, and in 1831 negotiated a treaty with Spain in behalf of French commerce.

of French commerce.

He was made consul at Borcelo He was made consul at Borcelona, but in 1844 returned to Alexandria. These he went back to Borcelona, and in the last days of the reign of Louis Phillips. Citizen King, was made French Minister at the Court of Madrid.

After the revolution of 1848, which overthrew the King of the French, he returned to Paria, and was sont by the new resultilization overstands.

new republican government to repre-sent it at Rome, then governed by Man-syptian Khedive in 1854. When DeLesseps visited Alexandria in that year the Viceroy gave him a restence in that city and enlisted him as a companion in his journey across the Libyan Desert. During the journey the project was conceived and placed before the Viceroy, who approved it and granted the first concession in that year.

A company was formed and subscription books were opened in Paris Nov.

5, 1858. Despite the hostility to the project shown by England and leading gineers, the stock was all subscribe efore Nov. 30.

The jury did so without leaving their seats.

Subsequent concessions were seculit was then found that the Assistant District-Attorney had sent home all his witnesses, supposing that it would take longer than it had to try the matter of Actual work on the canal was not tute miles of navigation, of which s six are actual canal, formed by cut